

Eligibility

- Organizations with a 501(c)(3) designation
- Those whose programs support either Financial, Education, Social, Physical and/or Health strategies
- Located within the credit union footprint
- Organization must be in good standing

Lower consideration for the following:

- Individual primary education schools
- Recreation, athletic or sports team programs

The following will not be considered:

- Individuals or individual projects
- Organizations established less than 24 months
- Political causes or candidates
- Religious organizations unless they are engaged in non-sectarian programs, benefit a broad base of the community, and possess a separate 501(c)(3) designation
- Requests for the purpose of reduction or liquidation of debt
- Endowment campaigns
- Private foundations
- Travel or conference expenses for non-profit agency personnel
- Fraternal or alumni organizations
- Any organization that has defaulted on obligations to the credit union